FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jajo Inc. Adds Three Staff Members

WICHITA, Kan. (September 17, 2007) — Jajo Inc. adds three employees: Amy Frazee, David Hahn and Jennifer Warren. The agency continues to be the fastest-growing ad agency in the Wichita market.

Amy Frazee joins the team as graphic designer. She previously worked for BeautyFirst as a graphic designer and Appreciated Advertising as a graphic designer/production artist. Frazee earned a degree in graphic design from Wichita State University.

David Hahn also joins as graphic designer. Hahn's previous experience was at Greteman Group as a graphic designer. He has a bachelor's degree in graphic design from Wichita State University.

Jajo's new office manager is Jennifer Warren. Her previous 15-year tenure was at local ad agency, Sullivan Higdon & Sink, as an administrative assistant. "We're in the midst of a strategic growth pattern at Jajo, and finding the right people is key to our success," said Steve Randa, managing partner. "Amy and David are great additions to our graphic design team, and Jennifer will be instrumental in streamlining our office operations."
